

TODAY'S PRICES
Mexican bank notes, state bills, 60¢; pesos, old, 54¢; new, 45¢; Mexican gold, 50¢; escalante, 30¢; bar silver, 11¢; H. & H. question, $1.20; copper, 22¢; zinc, 22¢; grain, lower; livestock, steady; stocks, firm.

LATEST NEWS BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

SINGLE COPY, FIVE CENTS

EL PASO, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 22, 1919.

DELIVERED ANYWHERE, 10¢ MONTH

16 PAGES, 2 SECTIONS, TODAY.

EL PASO HERALD

HOME EDITION

WEATHER FORECAST.

El Paso and west Texas, partly cloudy; New Mexico and Arizona, fair and warmer.

Committee Accepts Four Reservations

SENATORS VOTE FOR CHANGE IN TREATY

Foreign Relations Committee Agrees on a New Program.

ONE DEMOCRAT JOINS MAJORITY

Agreement to Reservation by Three Allies Made Necessary.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Four reserved reservations to the peace treaty were adopted today by the senate foreign relations committee with the administration leaders voting solidly against them.

The committee also adopted a program to the reservation providing that the treaty should not become effective until three of the other principal allies and associated powers had agreed to the senate's reservations. This, too, was opposed by the administration leaders.

The four reservations submitted related to article 10, which provides for the withdrawal of the American troops from Germany. On most of the roll call the division was 11 to 11, all of the Republicans and Democrats voting in the affirmative.

The reservation adopted relating to article 10 was identical, except for the transportation of the American troops, with the one which President Wilson announced on his western tour that he would be willing to "sign as a reservation of the treaty."

Senator John Reed, Republican, of Missouri, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

Senator McNary, Republican, of Oregon, was the first to vote against the treaty. He was followed by Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon, and Senator Charles McNary, Republican, of Oregon.

BRITISH GUNS SINK TWO TORPEDO BOATS OF BOLSHEVIK FLEET

Northwest Russian Army Announces the Capture of Krasnaia, on the Gulf of Finland Opposite Kronstadt; Stubborn Defense of Former Capital Offered by the Reinforced Bolshevik Army.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Two Bolshevik torpedo destroyers were sunk in Korpela bay, gulf of Finland, when they attempted to attack Estonian vessels and British destroyers on Tuesday, the admiralty announced today.

Two survivors from the Bolshevik vessels were picked up. The British and Estonian vessels suffered no casualties.

Krasnaia Captured.

The capture of Krasnaia, on the Gulf of Finland opposite Kronstadt, by the northwest Russian army is announced from that army's headquarters today. The capture was effected on Monday after severe fighting.

The battle for Petrograd continues, with a heavy engagement on the south of the city. Bolshevik reinforcements from Moscow are taking part in the defense of Petrograd, the reports said.

Gen. Yudenich, commander of the northwest Russian army, seems to have been brought to a virtual standstill by the stubborn defense of Petrograd, which is almost in sight of his main base. Soviet forces even reported to have taken the offensive north of the city, but details of the fighting have not been as yet fully reported.

Fighting East of Pulkovo.

East of Pulkovo, the Finnish army appears to have encountered strong Bolshevik columns. Pulkovo is about three miles from the only remaining railway line running south from Petrograd and the importance of retaining control of this road may explain the advance. Fighting in the area is reported to be very severe.

Soviet troops reported to have been concentrated near Gdov, near Lake Ladoga, are said to have been attacked by the anti-Bolshevik forces. The presence of this force on the left flank of the Finnish army is a serious matter.

Gen. Yudenich, commander of the northwest Russian army, seems to have been brought to a virtual standstill by the stubborn defense of Petrograd, which is almost in sight of his main base. Soviet forces even reported to have taken the offensive north of the city, but details of the fighting have not been as yet fully reported.

Kronstadt Not Attacked.

Kronstadt was not attacked, according to reports. The Finnish army appears to have encountered strong Bolshevik columns. Pulkovo is about three miles from the only remaining railway line running south from Petrograd and the importance of retaining control of this road may explain the advance. Fighting in the area is reported to be very severe.

Russian Princess Paints Horrible Picture Of Starvation In Moscow

PARIS, France, Oct. 22.—By the Associated Press.—Word pictures of Moscow's hunger are given in the pages by a Russian princess arriving from Russia.

"I will not speak of the terrible, revolting and odious things that are going on in the streets of Moscow," she said, "but only of the hunger incidents I saw with my own eyes and which were repeated day after day. I met a woman and a child crying and shouting, the child crying constantly with an unending expression of terror. The mother said that the child was hungry and asked for a piece of bread as they had not eaten for two days. I asked my nurse, but the woman turned away saying 'no, no money, no bread!'"

"Another time I saw a blood-haired young girl with arms outstretched, begging for food."

No Ambassador From U. S. To Go To Germany

Former Empire Will Have Less Diplomatic Rank From Now On.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Charge of embassy will be the rank of the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

The decision was announced by the state department today. The rank of minister will be given to the first American diplomatic representative to Germany after the ratification of the peace treaty, for until that time the rank will be that of a minister.

OREGON PLANS CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENCY

Asks Senate Not to Make Him Provisional General.

WILL SOON MAKE TRIP TO CAPITAL

After a Conference With Carranza He Will Tour the States.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 22.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon has wired the senate at Mexico City asking it not to ratify his rank of divisional general in the Mexican army so that he may become a civilian candidate in the presidential election which will take place in May, 1921, according to information received today at the office of Jose M. Arredondo, Mexican consul here.

To actively inaugurate his campaign, Gen. Obregon announced that he will leave his home at Nogales, for Mexico City to confer with President Carranza regarding the coming elections and to tour the 23 Mexican states in his own behalf. His only opponent at present in the presidential election is Gen. Pablo Gonzalez.

Mexicans Propose To Drive Out Chinese

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 22.—It appears to have been decided in Mexico that all Chinese who refuse to become Mexican citizens will be expelled from the country at the end of this year. The Chinese who refuse to become Mexican citizens will be expelled from the country at the end of this year.

SONORA INSPECTOR GENERAL IS STRIPPED OF HIS RANK

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 22.—Col. Rafael Gonzalez, inspector general of federal forces stationed in Sonora, has been stripped of rank by Col. Villalaz, his superior, according to information received here. This action was taken because of alleged irregularities in the handling of federal funds.

PRESIDENT CARRANZA GIVES GUARANTEES TO CANDIDATES

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22.—Candidates to the presidential election have been given guarantees by President Carranza, who has promised to treat all candidates fairly and to respect the rights of the opposition.

Thief Swipes 16 Turkeys; Loses Wallet With $60

LOUISE, Cal., Oct. 22.—Susanne Smith, 32, of the city of Louise, was arrested today for the theft of 16 turkeys from a local farmer. She was also found in possession of a wallet containing $60.

CUBAN LIBERALS INDORSE SUFFRAGE AND WORLD LEAGUE

HAVANA, Cuba, Tuesday, Oct. 22.—Recommendations granting the right of suffrage to Cuban women and calling for the formation of a world league for the maintenance of peace have been placed in the revised platform of the liberal party.

BELGIAN FREIGHT CARS FOUND ON LEFT BANK OF THE RHINE

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Oct. 22.—Marshall Fock has informed the Belgian government by telegram that 40,000 Belgian freight cars have been found on the left bank of the Rhine.

Uses Lantern To Find Gasoline Leak; Hospital

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 22.—Noticing that his automobile was leaking badly, W. O. Turner took a lantern and crawled underneath the car to find the leak. He found it. It was the gasoline tank in the rear of the car.

NATIONAL DISASTER IS SEEN IF LEADERS REACH NO AGREEMENT

Labor Delegates Force Reading of Letter Dictated by the President From His Sick Bed; Recess Taken After Rising Vote of Thanks is Extended; Labor Representatives in an Impatient Mood.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Organized labor representatives in the national industrial conference today forced the reading of a letter to the conference which president Wilson dictated from his sick bed and in which he declared the public expected the conference to stay together until every possible means had been exhausted to establish a "war and business cooperation between all the elements engaged in industry."

All the groups in the conference—capital, labor and the public—were present. But the labor groups were impatient to get on with the business of the conference. They felt that the president's letter was a mere formality and that the real work of the conference was yet to be done.

Before the reading of the letter, the labor groups had already passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

President Wilson's letter was read by the labor groups. It was a letter of encouragement and of hope. It was a letter that said that the president was confident that the conference would reach an agreement that would bring about a "war and business cooperation" between all the elements engaged in industry.

After the reading of the letter, the labor groups passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

The labor groups then passed a resolution demanding that the conference should be a "war and business cooperation conference" and that it should be a "war and business cooperation conference."

R. R. BROTHERHOODS OFFER TO HELP THE STRIKING STEEL MEN

MINERS AND OPERATORS SHOW NO SIGNS OF REACHING AGREEMENT

President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, Declares Situation is Unchanged; Operators Refuse to Disclose the Nature of the Proposal Made to Them by the Secretary of Labor.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 22.—W. Z. Foster, the steel strike leader, was notified today by John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the committee handling the strike, that the railroad brotherhoods have consented to the strike of steel mill workers employed by and around steel mills not under contract to the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.

President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, declared today that the situation was unchanged. He said that the operators had refused to disclose the nature of the proposal made to them by the secretary of labor.

The secretary of labor, William C. Clegg, had been reported to have made a proposal to the operators. The proposal was said to be a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

The operators, however, refused to disclose the nature of the proposal. They said that the proposal was a "war and business cooperation" proposal.

It's An Honor And A Privilege To Contribute To The Roosevelt Memorial